All boats stored in the clubrooms must display a valid tag in a visible location. This will be issued upon receipt of membership and storage fees and will remain valid as long as annual fees are paid. Any boat without a valid tag may be removed without notice. Please advise a committee member immediately if your tag is lost.

All boats are stored at the owner's risk and should be appropriately insured.

Boats must be stored in assigned berth.

The committee reserves the right to re-allocate berths.

Acceptance of risk:

I accept that the sport of kayaking carries with it some degree of risk both to person and property. Knowing of the risk, I still desire to participate in kayaking. I agree that Kupe Canoe Club accepts no responsibility for, and I will assume the full risk of, any injury or damage resulting from my participation in this activity. All club members are expected to comply with safe paddling practices and regulations.

I agree to abide by the Constitution of Kupe Canoe Club, the Code of Conduct and club policies. I consent to the collection of my membership details by Kupe Canoe Club for the purpose of club membership records. Kupe may retain, use and disclose these details to the national canoeing association that Kupe is affiliated to. My name, address, email and telephone number may be made available to other club members. I acknowledge my right to access and correct this information. This consent is given in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993.
